[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 20.—To-day's track field and relay meet at the University of Virginia was the best ever held at that institution. The points were distributed as follows:
Intercollegiate—Central High School of Washington, 34; Episcopal High School, of Alexandria, 32; Woodberry Forest School, 12; Baltimore City College, 7; Miller School, 5; McGuire's School, Richmond, 3.
Intercollegiate—University of Virginia, 83; George Washington University, 35; Richmond College, 17; Washington and Lee University, 3.
The summaries:

Four Records Broken.
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 20.—The large crowd present had the pleasure of seeing four South Atlantic records lowered. Hector, the Arkansas boy, who came to Virginia from Lawrenceville school, near Princeton, made the splendid time of 9.4 seconds in the 100-yard dash, and later ran 220 yards in 22 seconds flat.

Lorando, of George Washington, also jumped into the limelight by going the half-mile in 2:01. It was a great performance, and the crowd in the stands gave a hearty Virginia yell, with Lorando's name added. Boshier, of Virginia, kept in the lead until the last lap. At the end of the back stretch Lorando began to sprint, passing Boshier and winning by six yards. In the quarter-mile, Lorando defeated Marbury by eight yards, and in the mile again outfooted Boshier by three yards.

The fourth record smashed was by Randolph, of Virginia, who won the low hurdles in 25.4 seconds. There was close rivalry for the interscholastic banner, which finally went to the Central High School of Washington, with the Episcopal High School near Alexandria, only two points behind. Kemper, Hamilton and Hurch were the chief point winners for Central.

In the mile relay between McGuire's School, of Richmond, and the Miller School, Meek, who ran first for McGuire's, took the lead at the start. This led his two team-mates increased, Moseley at the finish, coming in some 200 yards ahead of Lane, of the Miller School. In the intercollegiate, Richmond College won both first and second places in the hammer throw, second and third places in the broad jump, second place in the shot and fourth place in the quarter-mile.

TARHEELS LOSE TO VIRGINIANS

Susong Lets Down North Carolina With but Two Lone Hits.

GREAT INTEREST IN GAME
Losers Tie Score in Seventh, but Old Dominions Come Back in Same Round.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GREENSBORO, N. C., April 20.—In the presence of 2,500 enthusiastic Tarheels and visitors from the Old Dominion, the Carolina baseball team this afternoon went down in defeat before the Virginia nine to the cheerless tune of 5 to 2. The game was quite interesting, although rather ragged and loose in places.

Before time for the game to be called the grandstands had been filled, and the crowd rapidly spread down the bleachers, standing almost to the foul line on both sides and along the garden wall. The colors of the two universities—the white and blue of Carolina and the blue and orange of Virginia—were strangely intermingled in the grandstands, and from every point in the great semi-circle pennants waved above the heads of school-boys and gay young women.

Virginia Scores First.
It was a little after 3:30 o'clock when Umpire Earle Holt called "Play ball." For the first two innings neither side scored, and both teams put up a good exhibition. In the third inning Woodson, of the Virginia team, went to first on four bad ones, and scored on Harrison's neat single to the outfield. There were no more runs made until the seventh, when Virginia scored another man, who went to first on a passed ball, and scored Harrison's hit.

In the seventh Carolina tied the score. Rogers went to first on four balls; Montgomery singled, advancing Rogers. Both advanced as James went out at first, and scored on a pretty single that struck the ground and bounded to the fence. Story was the hero of the hour, and pandemonium broke loose in the grandstands and along the foul lines. But the joy was short-lived, for in Virginia's half a combination of errors and hits gave the boys from Charlottesville three more runs. A dance is being given at the hotel to-night in honor of the winners.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BLACKSBURG, VA., April 20.—By a score of 5 to 2, V. P. I. defeated Emory and Henry this afternoon on the home field, which was made uncomfortable for players and spectators by cold and high winds. The game was devoid of sensational plays, except in the second inning, when E. S. Sheppard reached third-base on a hit, bringing in three men.

TRINITY BARELY DEFEATS G. W. U.

Timely Three-Bagger by Puryear Turns Defeat to Victory.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 20.—But for Puryear's slashing three-bagger and Sulter's single to right in the first session of to-day's game, George Washington would have had a chance of playing the fast Trinity outfit to a standstill. As it was, however, the natives were defeated in eight innings by 9 to 8.

After the first inning both pitchers were going good, with Lana always having the better of Carr; but the latter was well supported by his team-mates, and the Hatchettes were enabled to keep the North Carolinians near the cushions. Neither side was able to get a run across until the sixth, when Trinity shoved two over. Three more came in the seventh and three in the eighth.

ONE RUN WINS FOR PORTSMOUTH

Truckers Take Mary Jane Into the Fold by Score of 3 to 2.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., April 20.—Three thousand fans saw a ten-inning game end in a heart-breaking finish, Portsmouth defeating Norfolk, 3 to 2. Both teams rallied in the extra inning, Norfolk batted in one run, but lost out by allowing two men to score on errors.

The feature was the batting of McMahon and Martin, each getting a three-bagger. Portsmouth played the superior fielding game; Norfolk leading at the bat.

ASHLAND, VA., April 20.—Emory and Henry College baseball team was defeated in an exhibition game here yesterday by the score of 9 to 7. CLARK'S WORK A FEATURE Largest Crowd Ever Assembled at Roanoke Sees Exciting Game.

ROANOKE, VA., April 20.—Roanoke opened the Virginia League season to-day with the largest crowd ever seen at a ball game in this city, and won over Lynchburg by 5 to 4.

A cold wind swept over the grounds during the game, interfering with the work of the players. Nevertheless the game was very interesting and exciting. The many good plays brought the fans to their feet repeatedly. Willis and Ludwig both pitched good ball. McMahon's error in the fifth gave the visitors two runs, the ball being lost under the scoreboard.

The locals made a Garrison finish, tying the score in the eighth and winning out in the ninth with one man out. Clark's batting, fielding and baserunning was the distinct feature. A sudden drop in the temperature caused many to leave before the game ended. The score:

AMATEUR BALL NOTES.
Teams of the League Warming Up for Opening.

The new ground of the Amateur League was played on yesterday for the first time by teams representing the Southern Bell Telephone Company and Kingan & Company. Mr. Mulr, secretary of the Amateur League, who has been largely instrumental in securing the use of the ground from the City Council, by request, pitched the first ball across the plate of the new diamond.

The ground gives promise of being as good as there is in the city, and the park authorities are as keenly interested as any one in this new departure in the city's park.

The game was only a scrub affair, more to warm up for the strenuous work of the league, whose competition proper starts next Saturday.

The Public School League starts its games on the above ground on Monday.

The Leods had a warm-up against a Church Hill nine on Saturday at Chestnut Hill, the final score being 8 to 2 in favor of the Leods.

FOREST HILL.
Watkins-Cottrell had a friendly encounter with the Little Axe team, to get limbered up for their first engagement in the Amateur League on April 27th against The Times-Dispatch aggregation.

CHRIST CHURCH ATHLETIC GROUNDS.
The warming-up process was in evidence here also, where the Chesapeake and Ohio Officers' team had a practice game with the Christ Church Association. The game ended in favor of the association by 12 to 8.

Richmond made it three straight from Danville yesterday afternoon by taking the Tobaccoists into camp in an interesting and well-played game by 4 to 2. Wallace's slashing hit to right-field in the fourth inning, with two down and men on second and third, virtually won the game for the Law-makers, for in the ninth Salve let down slightly, and was touched up for the second and third hits gotten off his delivery for the nine rounds, and which scored for the visitors the run which would otherwise have tied the score.

With the exception of the reckless manner in which the southpaw, Salve, doled out his six passes, the young man was in remarkable form. As a matter of fact, his offering of bases on balls but added zest to the game, for he would walk one or two men and then calmly retire the others on strikes or force them to pop up weak flies, which were well taken care of by the fielders.

While it was Wallace's hit which drove in the two winning tallies, Salve himself added materially by pasting out a neat single in the opening of the fatal fourth, and was one of the two to score in that round. Until the final session Salve was found for but one lone bingle; but in that inning he eased a bit, and Bowen and Powell took advantage.

Hardly Howard's Fault.
It was Howard who was ~~scolded~~ <sup>loaded</sup> a grapefruit by the local contingent. On Friday night he begged so hard to go in yesterday that McKevitt let him have his way, only to learn that the Rubes' twists were no cause of fear to opponents from this city.

While ten hits is not such a awful hammering, still when they come on, portunately and are coupled with a passed ball, free walks and stolen sacks, they are decidedly profitable to the rival team; and it was just this way yesterday. Rube occasionally showed excellent form, several times pulling himself out of nasty holes by nailing down the lid. One example of this happened in the second, when, with but one down and bases full, he got by with his job by allowing but one man to score, and that was any-thing but his fault, as he threw to Edgewood, who tried to double it to Hinton's choice, and the catcher miscued on the throw.

In the first inning Wallace received the glad hand from the 8,000 loyalists who had assembled to witness the struggle by a beautiful throw from Doyle at the initial sack in fine style. It was not only a long one, but flew true into Pop's glove, and barely missed catching Doyle off the sack. Another piece of pretty work was made in the fifth by Kirkpatrick. Howard pasted a sizzler to the third-sacker, who had to reach toward the plate in attempting the leather up. Kirk was twisted into an assortment of bowknots that would have been a credit to a professional contortionist, but he never stopped, and got Howard a mill by one of the quickest exhibitions of work seen here.

In the sixth Shaffer caused a laugh and much jeering from the bleachers by pulling off that time-honored and hoary trick of hiding the ball on a runner at first. Hessler pasted a fielder's choice to short, which forced Doyle out at second. O'Neil tried to double it to Shaffer, but Doyle landed when the sphere went a little wide. The manager recovered nicely and apparently threw to Salve, who proceeded to wind up for delivery.
